

THE BOSTON FILM FESTIVAL

Celebrating 33 Years of Cinema

The 2017 Boston Film Festival will celebrate its 33rd year September 21-24 with a distinct program of films at the new chic Stuart Street Playhouse in the heart of the theater district. A schedule of feature, documentaries, animated and short films will be presented at the 2017 festival. Filmmakers, actors and supporters have the opportunity to network at various events hosted by Boston's signature restaurants throughout the week. A variety of awards are given annually. As the origin of many illustrious storytellers, the region provides an idyllic setting to experience a festival of motion pictures.

The BFF has premiered a list of remarkable films. Additionally, many renowned directors and celebrities have participated in the festival including; Andy Garcia, Chris Evans, Mike O'Malley, Brittany Snow, Aaron Eckhart, Ed Burns, Melissa Leo, Sam Rockwell, Uma Thurman, Greg Kinnear, George Clooney, Dane Cook, Sam Mendes, Sir Ridley Scott, Jerry Weintraub, Adam Brody, Robin Tunney, and many more. The Festival is dedicated to supporting evolving filmmakers by providing a forum to showcase their artistic vision.

Audiences are given first hand access to the motion picture process during Q & A's with the filmmakers and actors. It provides a rare chance to interface with Hollywood's top names alongside of cutting-edge filmmakers. The Boston Film Festival provides a valuable contribution to the City's cultural community. The festival showcases the Bay State as an international tourism destination as well as spotlighting Massachusetts' as a desirable place to live and do business.

The 33rd Boston Film Festival commemorative program will be a keepsake that will extend the reach of this unique marketing opportunity. Become a part of Boston's film community while advertising to a diverse, sophisticated, and well informed audience.
